

Located off Interstate 26 between Columbia and Greenville, the City of Newberry offers residents and tourists alike with a taste of history, culture and small town charm. Founded in 1789, Newberry's rich past and thriving future has been nationally recognized in the New York Times, Wal
I Street Journal
and
Southern Living

Newberry's downtown historic district – the centerpiece of the community - boasts an array of unique shops and restaurants, a state-of-the-art opera house, a newly renovated meeting & event center and one of the Southeast's finest private colleges, Newberry College. The beautiful surrounding countryside offers hundreds of outdoor activities from forest preserves to golf courses to the Enoree River Vineyard.

To learn more about the town Newberry Academy calls home, please visit www.visitnewberrysc.com. You may find that Newberry is just the place you've been looking for!